

The Cumbria Grand Hotel

Facilities for your comfort...

All of our bedrooms have en-suite bathroom, colour television with radio, tea tray, telephone, central heating and most have views over the bay or woodland.

We can also offer mini suites and executive bedrooms which as well as the above facilities have hair dryer, trouser press and additional telephone/modem point. There is even a four poster bed for that special occasion.

Wining and Dining...

Our experienced executive chef has developed an excellent kitchen, and along with our well stocked bar, we will ensure you have a fulfilling experience.

Live entertainment is available during some evenings.

Conferences and social events...

The hotel is ideally situated for all occasions – residential and day conferences, small meetings, wedding receptions and dinner dances. The variety of stylish rooms can accommodate from 20 to 300 people.

Extensive facilities can be provided to suit your individual needs.

The peaceful rural setting and spacious grounds offer flexibility for outdoor events.

For the conference and meeting organiser we can provide executive style meeting rooms or conference suites – in short the Cumbria Grand is a suitable location in which to conduct anything from a private interview to a seminar, conference or product launch.

Parking is available for up to 150 cars.
